State-by-state general disclosures are required by 34 CFR 668.43(5)(v) for programs that lead to certification or licensure. Complete this table to indicate whether your educational program meets educational requirements for certification or licensure in each state. If your program does not lead to certification or licensure, please indicate that in the first row.